CLIMATE AND WEATHER

In May, Islantilla enjoys wonderfully warm and sunny weather, making it an ideal time to visit. With average daytime temperatures hovering around 24°C (75°F) and plenty of sunshine, it's perfect for beach days, al fresco dining, and exploring the local sights. The evenings are pleasantly mild, and rainfall is minimal, giving you every excuse to stay outdoors and soak up the early summer vibe.

Cuisine: Islantilla's cuisine is a true taste of Andalusia, with a strong influence from the nearby fishing villages and local agricultural traditions. Fresh seafood is the star of the show – think grilled sardines, cuttlefish, and the region's famous white prawns. You'll also find delicious tapas, rich Iberian hams, and locally grown olives and wines to complement every meal. Whether you're dining in a beachfront chiringuito or a tucked-away taverna, the food here is all about simple, bold flavours and warm hospitality.

YOUR TEACHERS

We would like to introduce John & Linda West, former 'Over 50 British Champions' and very popular teachers and hosts.

CLASSES AND WORKSHOPS

Dance venue: All the dancing conveniently takes place in the hotel on wooden floor.

Singles: Whilst those booking without a partner will be amply catered to in the classes, it is worth noting that Modern & Latin as a dance does attract couples. This might be a consideration from a social perspective on the holiday. If you are booking on your own, we will confirm your booking once we got a Dance partner with the same Dance level as you.

The main dances in modern ballroom area:

- The Waltz - Slow waltz, (Think "Come Away with Me" by Norah Jones)
- The Quickstep - As the name suggests – fast! (Think Nat King Cole's "Let's Face the Music and Dance" or "I'm the King of the Swingers" a la Jungle Book!)
- Foxtrot - Smooth as silk – (Think Frank Sinatra's "I've got you under my skin" or Michael Buble's "Just Haven't met You Yet")
- Ballroom Tango – Usually quite dramatic – (Think "Phantom of the Opera" or Fernando's Hideaway")

The Waltz – Stems from one of the oldest folk dances, which was usually danced to a faster tempo - more like the Viennese Waltz. This was refined and slowed-down for ballroom waltz to emphasise the flowing and smooth nature of the music.

It is the most danced of all the ballroom dances and along with quickstep the first you would normally learn. The famous 1-2-3 music beat makes it fairly basic to follow and relatively easy for a beginner to pick up basic steps within a short period. To master the dance and make it look really good takes a lot of dedication and therefore a good ballroom holiday would help to enhance.

The Quickstep – Very fast and fun! Along with the waltz one of the first dances you would normally learn in ballroom. The slow-slow-quick-quick-slow rhythm is quite easy to follow and therefore relatively easy for beginners to get the hang of the basic steps and quickly be able to move round a dance floor.

To become really good needs a lot of practise and energy. So most people stick to the basics with one or two fancy steps to impress. A ballroom holiday would allow a beginner to learn enough to join in a dance and more experienced dancers to add to their repertoire or polish their style.

The Foxtrot (Also known as Slow-Foxtrot) – The most difficult of the modern ballroom dances, yet often the most beautiful music (Frank Sinatra, Michael Buble, Ella Fitzgerald etc) and that is why many people will go through the pain and frustration of learning it. You would usually learn basic waltz and quickstep before starting on foxtrot, as you need to have some idea of timing and how to move with the music.

You start by being mystified by the complexity of the steps, which make no sense at all at the beginning. Then, suddenly, you get it - and you link it in with the wonderful music - and it was all worthwhile!

A ballroom holiday gives you the concentrated tuition and practice needed to pick up the basics in a relatively short time and, for the experienced dancer, allow you to build on the grace and flow of this beautiful dance.

AT YOUR DESTINATION

Banks & Accessing Cash in Spain

The easiest way to obtain euros is by using a credit or debit card at ATMs, which are conveniently located within a five-minute walk from the hotel. Some ATMs may charge a fee for foreign currency withdrawals, so it's best to check with your bank for the most cost-effective options.

Banks in Spain are typically open from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM. They can exchange cash, process travellers' cheques, and allow currency purchases via credit card, provided banking systems are operational. A passport is required for transactions at a bank.

Tipping is generally not that common in Spain. There is no need to tip taxis but it is usual to leave a 5 - 10% tip at a restaurant if you are particularly pleased with your dinner/lunch.

We feel our tour hosts work hard to give you an exceptional holiday and sometimes you may find that they add some special touches which are beyond the call of duty. If you agree with us, you might wish to show your appreciation by way of a tip. You can do this by putting money in an envelope on your own or by getting together with other guests. This is entirely at your discretion.

Making friends with the Locals and people not on the holiday: The dance classes and dance evening events in the hotel at night are exclusive to Club Dance Holidays clients. Wristband checks are conducted and anyone that is not a paying guest on the holiday will be asked to leave.
